

Washington State
Department of Services for the Blind
Announces

SKILLS Workshop Weekend

*SAVE THE DATE****

When: Weekend of August 5-7, 2016

Where: Eastern Washington University, Cheney, WA

Who: Visually Impaired Students 9-13 years old
(Must be age 9 by August 1, 2016)

What: Skills is a weekend camp focusing on the expanded core curriculum and activities of daily living for the age group of 9 to 13.

Cost: Free. Students will stay on EWU campus with full-time supervision. (If parents need financial help for transportation to/from SKILLS, contact Debbie Brown)

RSVP to Debbie Brown by June 30, 2016

Department of Services for the Blind

debbie.brown@dsb.wa.gov

Toll free: 1-800-552-7103

Direct line: 509-456-2933

SKILLS is a program run by the Washington State Department of Services for the Blind's (DSB) Youth Services team.

For more information please visit, www.dsb.wa.gov.