

Skills East

Curriculum-based Summer Learning Program

The Department of Services for the Blind is offering an east side Skills weekend. The event is designed to begin the process of future career employment as a visually impaired worker – while having fun!

WHAT?

SKILLS Camp provides Pre-Employment Transition Services intended to correlate directly to the required activities of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act:

- Job exploration and work-based learning
- Workplace readiness in social skills and independent living
- Self-advocacy
- Post-secondary exploration

Some of the recreational and educational activities include:

- Ice Skating
- Meal Preparation
- Orientation and Mobility
- Meet and Greet with the Spokane Lion Pride Beep Baseball team
- Goal Ball Games
- Arts and Crafts
